

Erick Rolando Toledo, M.S.

1111 Jackson Avenue

Takoma Park, MD 20912, USA

Phone: (301) 408-2882

Email: ericktoledo2002@yahoo.com; etoledo@wam.umd.edu

---

Professional Skills

Training, Program Coordination and Development, Program Management and Evaluation, Financial and Administrative Knowledge, English-Spanish-Italian, Computer Skills: Microsoft Access, Excel, Front Page, Outlook Express, Word, and Lotus

TRAINING, EXPERIENCE AND FUNCTIONAL SKILLS

1997-1998	University of Maryland, USA	M.S. Sustainable Development
1990-1996	Universidad de San Carlos, Guatemala	B.S. Natural Resources
1982-1985	Universidad Rafael Landivar, Guatemala	Technician-Natural Resources
1986	Scoula CECTI di Fermo, Italy	Italian Proficiency

WORK EXPERIENCE AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

1999-Current Director of New Forests Project

The International Center
Washington, DC

Managed and coordinated a $700,000 international program for New Forests Project both in USA and overseas. Organized / conducted regional seminars and workshops. Wrote grants proposals. Coordinated both the World Seed Program and Water & Sanitation Program in Central America. Editor of an electronic newsletter based on development and conservation in Latin America. Internship Coordinator.

1997-1998 Project Coordinator

Natural Resources/Landscape
Dept. University of Maryland

Implemented and developed experimental projects for the Bioremediation Program. Managed, monitored and evaluated projects in laboratories and in the field. Carried out scientific and library research for environmental protection and bioremediation.

1997 Consultant

Conservation International –CI-
Meso-American Program,
Washington, DC

Wrote grant proposal for watershed protection, wildlife conservation and community development in the Maya Biosphere Reserve in Guatemala. Established databases on oil development.

1997 Intern

World Wildlife Fund –WWF-
GIS Laboratory
Washington, DC

Established database for Watershed Eco-region in Latin America. Co-edited the document “Freshwater Biodiversity of Latin America and the Caribbean: A Conservation Assessment.”

1995-1996      Professor/Researcher      Universidad del Valle –UVG-
Biology Dept. and Center for Environmental Studies, Guatemala
Managed the biology laboratory and taught courses in conservation biology. Developed and managed environmental projects in Guatemala. Organized and conducted seminars and workshops in Conservation, Economic Development and Policy in Guatemala.

1996      Professional Training Researcher      Universidad de San Carlos de
Guatemala –USAC-, Guatemala
Conducted social and environmental assessments and projects in Chichoj Watershed, Guatemala.

1989-1995      Director of Wildlife Section      National Council of Protected Areas
-CONAP-, Guatemala
Developed and managed the Wildlife Section of CONAP. Conducted environmental programs, management and evaluation. Managed the office of the Convention on International Trade of Endangered Species of Flora and Fauna –CITES- and RAMSAR Convention.

1987-1989      Production Director/ Quality Control      Industria “La Palma”, Guatemala
Managed and supervised food production and the maintenance facility in a dairy industry in Guatemala. Run the Quality Control Department.

1986-1987      Technical Translator      Ministry of Development
Guatemala-Italy
Coordinated and conducted all translations from Italian to Spanish for agricultural technical team.

LANGUAGES

Spanish	Functional Native Proficiency
English	Oral Advanced Professional Proficiency, Written Proficiency
Italian	Oral and Written Advanced Professional Proficiency
Portuguese	Basic knowledge